

11/2/2023 City Stated Council Meeting (Watched Recording)

- Some people said “presente”
- Sounds like a community board meeting but everyone is a lot more bored and serious.
- So many people are on there phones :)

- Too many disposable cups :)
- Always have respect for people's humanity.
- Everyone should be comfortable in their skin. Everyone is accepted in NYC.
—Adams
- Questions (some for council members)
 - What are people doing on their phones during the meetings?
 - Why is Keith Powers, not Adams, leading the meeting? He is the majority leader.
 - What is the pledge to? Why doesn't anyone speak?
 - What was the invocation at the end?
- The council members state their COIB at the start going as far as saying that their child goes to CUNY and the bill affects CUNY.

- On the one hand, Nantasha Williams is a PhD candidate while being council member, indicating that council member is a part-time job. On the other hand, Mr. Marte was complaining to me about how busy being a council member is.
 - At 52:17, someone interrupted the council for reforming the TLC. He was escorted.
- Attend City Stated Council Meeting in person
- What does Intro and Intl mean?
 - Intro 1192?
- The most important person goes last, correct?
- What does it mean to sponsor and cosponsor a bill?
